

and efficiency of the physical security measures taken.

(4) Approve or revise security ratings established under section 4 (a) hereof and transmit the security ratings so approved or revised to agencies assigned facilities under section 3 (b) (3) hereof. The Chairman may make any approved or revised security rating available to Federal agencies other than the agency to which a facility concerned is assigned, for such uses related to the maintenance of production or the national security as the Chairman may approve.

(5) Review the physical security programs and measures of Federal agencies as to effectiveness and as to conformity with the policies and directives of the Chairman under this order.

(6) Obtain from Federal agencies reports, recommendations, and information deemed by the Chairman to be essential to the discharge of his responsibilities under this order.

(7) Consult with Federal agencies having responsibilities related to functions set forth in this order, for the purpose of furthering coordination of policies and activities; and develop, and report to the President concerning, programs which properly relate the physical security of facilities and other measures designed to maintain and restore essential productive capability.

(8) Make available, or cause to be made available, to Federal agencies such of the information developed in connection with carrying out section 4 (a) hereof as the Chairman deems to be needed by those agencies in connection with the physical security of facilities or other aspects of the maintenance of production.

(9) Keep the President informed as may be necessary concerning the matters encompassed by this order and furnish him such recommendations as may be appropriate.

(10) Consistent with law, establish such advisory bodies as the Chairman may deem necessary to assist him in carrying out his functions under this order.

SEC. 4. (a) The Secretary of Commerce shall from time to time establish and transmit to the Chairman security ratings of facilities, based on the relative importance thereof to defense mobilization, defense production, and essential civilian economy.

(b) In carrying out section 4 (a) hereof, the Secretary of Commerce shall consult with Federal agencies as may be appropriate.

(c) To the extent necessary for the performance of functions under section

4 (a) hereof, Federal agencies which have, or can best obtain, data on plant locations, plant capacities, production, service industries, technical processes, and production requirements, and other similar information shall make available to the Secretary of Commerce such data and information. In the event of any disagreement with respect to making data or information available under this section 4 (c), the Chairman shall resolve such disagreement and the decision of the Chairman shall be final.

(d) The Industry Evaluation Board is continued and shall, to such extent and in such manner as the Secretary of Commerce may direct, assist the Secretary in carrying out the functions of the Secretary under section 4 (a) hereof. The Secretary, with the approval of the Chairman, may from time to time alter the composition of the said Board. There is hereby terminated the now-existing Presidentially approved assignment of functions to the said Board.

SEC. 5. Each Federal procurement agency which obtains in connection with its procurement contracts agreements requiring contractors to provide physical security measures for their facilities shall provide in such agency for the review of such agreements. The purpose of such review shall be to assure conformity of the physical security measures required by the agreements with the standards prescribed under section 3 (b) (2) hereof.

SEC. 6. (a) The Facilities Protection Board is transferred to the jurisdiction of the Chairman. Existing arrangements concerning the physical location of and administrative support for the Board may be continued.

(b) The Facilities Protection Board shall hereafter consist of one representative of each of the following agencies, namely, the Departments of Defense, Commerce, Interior, and Labor, the Atomic Energy Commission, the Federal Civil Defense Administration, and such other agencies as the Chairman may from time to time designate. Each such representative shall be designated by the head of the agency he is to represent. Each person who is now a member of the Board may continue as a member without the necessity of redesignation by reason of this order. The Chairman of the National Security Resources Board shall from time to time designate from among the members of the Board a Chairman of the Facilities Protection Board.

(c) The Board shall assist and advise the Chairman in carrying out the functions vested in him by this order. There is hereby terminated the now-existing
