U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D.C., June 26, 1968.

Hon. HENRY M. JACKSON, Chairman, Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs,

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: This responds to your request for the views of this Department on S. 26, a bill "To revise the boundaries of the Canyonlands National Park in the State of Utah." We recommend the enactment of the bill, with the amendments indicated below. The Act of September 12, 1964 (78 Stat. 934; 16 U.S.C. 271 et seq.), established the Canyonlands National Park in Utah, containing weirdly eroded rocks, towering spires, mesas rising to more than 7,800 feet in elevation, and ancient petrogety. The first section of the Act defines the boundary of the park by a detailed metes and bounds land description, and states that the park contains approximetes and bounds land description, and states that the park contains approximately 257,640 acres. S. 26 amends the 1964 Act by substituting for such land description a boundary map on file in the offices of the National Park Service of the Department. The boundary depicted on the map adds to Canyonlands National Park four separate treats totaling approximately 100 000 agrees. Three of tional Park four separate tracts totaling approximately 100,000 acres. Three of the tracts adjoin Canyonlands National Park and the remaining tract is located a few miles west of the park. a few miles west of the park. All of the tracts contain scenic, scientific, and historic features of national significance and deserve the high degree of preservation they would be accorded as part of Canyonlands National Park. The four tracts
