

1 enjoyment; and (3) such management, utilization, and 2 disposal of renewable natural resources and the continua-
3 tion of such existing uses and developments as are compati-
4 ble with, or do not significantly impair, public recreation
5 and conservation of the scenic, scientific, historic, or other
6 values contributing to public enjoyment.

7 (c) The lands within the recreation areas, subject to 8 valid existing rights, are hereby withdrawn from location, 9 entry, and patent under the United States mining laws. The 10 Secretary of the Interior, under such regulations as he deems 11 appropriate, may permit the removal of the nonleasable min-
12 erals from the lands within the recreation area in the man-
13 ner prescribed by section 10 of the Act of August 4, 1939,
14 as amended (53 Stat. 1196; 43 U.S.C. 387), and he may 15 permit the removal of leasable minerals from lands within 16 the recreation area in accordance with the Mineral Leasing 17 Act of February 25, 1920, as amended (30 U.S.C. 181 et 18 seq.), or the Acquired Lands Mineral Leasing Act of August
19 7, 1947 (30 U.S.C. 351 et seq.). Any such permit or lease 20 may be issued by the Secretary of the Interior only with the 21 approval of the Secretary of Agriculture and upon a determi-
22 nation by him that such disposition would not have significant 23 adverse effects on the administration of the recreation area 24 or recreation areas involved, and each permit or lease shall 25 be subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Agriculture
