

ARDEN HOUSE STEERING COMMITTEE

JOSEPH C. WILSON: Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Xerox Corporation. He is a trustee of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, and of the Committee for Economic Development. Mr. Wilson is also honorary Chairman of the University of Rochester Board of Trustees and a past president of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

JOSEPH L. BLOCK: Chairman of the Executive Committee of Inland Steel Company. He is a director of the Commonwealth Edison Company, the First National Bank of Chicago, and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Mr. Block also serves as a trustee of the Illinois Institute of Technology and the Committee for Economic Development. He is a director and past president of the Chicago Community Fund and has won several awards for civic and welfare activities.

JOHN A. COLEMAN: A senior partner of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Adler, Coleman & Company. He has served as a Governor of the Exchange and as Vice Chairman and Chairman of its Board of Governors. Mr. Coleman holds directorships in several corporations, including the New York Telephone Company, the Chrysler Corporation, and the General Aniline and Film Corporation. He serves on the boards of several foundations.

GILBERT W. FITZHUGH: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. He is also a director of Chase Manhattan Bank and the Singer Company, and a trustee of Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. Mr. Fitzhugh serves on the Board of the Economic Development Council of New York City, the Commerce and Industry Association of New York, and the New York City Public Development Corporation. He is also a trustee of the National Industrial Conference Board and the Committee for Economic Development, and Vice President of the New York Chamber of Commerce.

PHILIP M. KLUTZNICK: Chairman of the Urban Investment and Development Co., Chicago. He is also Chairman of the Board of American Bank and Trust Company of New York City. Mr. Klutznick is a member of the State of Illinois Medical Commission and a Governor of the Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council of Chicago. In public service related to urban development, Mr. Klutznick has served by presidential appointment in the Federal Government since 1935. He was Representative of the United States to the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations in 1961-62.

GUSTAVE L. LEVY: Chairman of the Board of Governors of the New York Stock Exchange. A partner in the firm of Goldman, Sachs & Co., he is a director of many industrial and business organizations. Mr. Levy is General Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, past president of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York, President of Mount Sinai Hospital, and Treasurer of the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

BALDWIN MAULL: Chairman of the Board of Marine Midland Corporation. In 1965 he headed the New York State Citizens' Committee on Welfare Costs, and earlier had served on the Moreland Act Commission on Public Welfare. Mr. Maull is a director of several corporations. He is also a member of the Board of Managers, State Communities Aid Association, and has been affiliated with numerous community organizations, including the Community Welfare Council of Buffalo and Erie County.

ARJAY MILLER: Vice-Chairman of the Ford Motor Company. He is a member of the Boards of Trustees of the Brookings Institution, the Committee for Economic Development, and the National Industrial Conference Board. Mr. Miller serves as Chairman of the Visiting Committee of the University of California at Los Angeles Graduate School of Business Administration and as a member of the Harvard Business School Visiting Committee.

ALFRED C. NEAL: President of the Committee for Economic Development, New York City. An economist and research executive, he is a member of the President's