

Public Advisory Committee on Trade Negotiations and an advisor to the Office of Economic Opportunity. A former Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. Mr. Neal taught economics at Brown University and is the author of several books in that field.

ALBERT L. NICKERSON: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Mobil Oil Corporation. He is a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Chairman of the Balance of Payments Committee of the U.S. Department of Commerce, and Vice Chairman of the Business Council. A trustee of Rockefeller University and the American Museum of Natural History, Mr. Nickerson is also a member of the Corporation of Radio Free Europe, a Harvard College Fellow, and a trustee emeritus of International House.

HARVEY C. RUSSELL: Vice President, Community Affairs, Pepsico, Inc. He is a member of the Advisory Council of President Johnson's "Plans For Progress," the U.S. State Department Advisory Council on African Affairs, and the Business Leaders Advisory Council of the Office of Economic Opportunity. Mr. Russell was a member of the New York State Citizens' Committee on Welfare Costs, and is a director of the Westchester Adoption Service and a member of the Board of Managers of the New York State Communities Aid Association. He is also a trustee of Tougaloo College, Mississippi.

SAMUEL J. SILBERMAN: Chairman of the Board of Consolidated Cigar Corporation. He is President of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York and a trustee of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Mr. Silberman is also a member of the Board of the Greater New York Fund and the National Committee for Social Work Education of the Council on Social Work education.