

FISCAL EFFORT FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

The total personal income in the United States from all sources has risen steadily since 1950. The aggregate personal income which was $228.5 billion in 1950 had more than doubled by 1965, when it reached $530.7 billion.

2

GROSS NATIONAL PRODUCT AND PERSONAL INCOME

BILLIONS OF DOLLARS

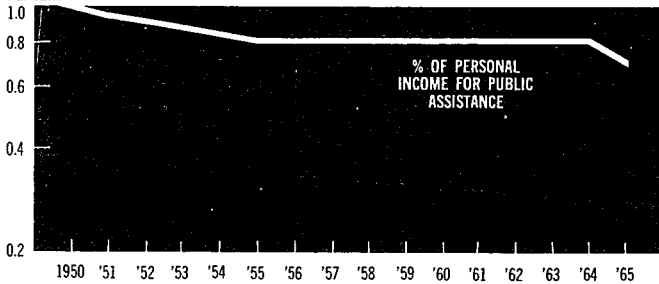

Growth

... And

PERCENT OF PERSONAL INCOME SPENT ON PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

PERCENT

Decline

It must be noted, while actual dollar costs have risen, public welfare expenditures have decreased as a percentage of national personal income and gross national product.