

1 § 111. Judicial review

2 Parties to proceedings before the Commission may obtain
3 review of actions and final determinations of the Commission
4 by filing an appeal, within thirty days from receiving notice
5 of such action or determination, in the United States District
6 Court for the District of Alaska. In considering any such 7 appeal the court shall be limited to considering and deciding 8 only the following questions:

9 (a) Whether any specific provision of this Act, of 10 the Constitution of the United States, or of the consti-
11 tution of Alaska has been violated.

12 (b) Whether the Commission acted capriciously or 13 arbitrarily.

14 (c) Whether there is information, published or 15 written material, evidence, or other data within the 16 record to sustain the actions or determinations of the 17 Commission as being reasonable.

18 The court may remand the matter reviewed for such 19 further proceedings as it may direct, consistent with the 20 provisions of this Act, and may grant other appropriate 21 judicial relief.

22 § 112. Attorneys for native groups

23 Attorneys retained by native groups, regional corpora-
24 tions, and the statewide corporation, requiring legal repre-
25 sentation before the Commission or other legal services shall
