

Hotel losses since April 1968, due to civil disorders and poor people's encampmentLoss of Business:

April.....	$2, 000, 000
May.....	1, 500, 000
June.....	1, 750, 000

Personnel loss: 875 less employees (in 31 hotels) today than normal for this time of year; $311,000 per month payroll loss to employees; and $8,000 per month loss in taxes to District of Columbia Government.

Type of Continuing Reservation Cancellation: Elks Convention scheduled for July, 1969, which had reserved 5,000 hotel rooms—canceled.

JUNE 11, 1968.