

IV CONTENTS

Chapter	Page
VII. The causes for social differentiation—Continued
Agricultural production factors.....	105
Farm organization factors.....	106
An explanatory hypothesis.....	108
Conclusions.....	112
Appendix
A. Sources of data, methodology, and sampling technique.....	115
B. Agricultural data, sources and methods.....	121
C. Analysis of monthly labor requirements.....	129
D. Method of obtaining population figures.....	133
E. Method of determining level-of-living index.....	134
F. Association between social phenomena.....	136
G. Business enterprise data: Sources and methods.....	138

INDEX OF FIGURES

Figure No.	Page
1. Upper San Joaquin Valley, Calif., showing Arvin and Dinuba and selected communities.....	11
2. Gross farm income by principal sources.....	25
3. Comparisons in size of farming operations.....	29
4. Size distribution of farms and of cropland acreage in farms.....	30
5. Distribution of farms by size in acre-equivalent units.....	31
6. Monthly labor requirements and source of supply.....	35
7. Age distribution of Arvin and Dinuba population, compared to San Joaquin Valley.....	41
8. Occupational structure (Arvin and Dinuba).....	45
9. Distribution of families according to level of living.....	48
10. Scattergram showing relationship between level of living and income.....	50
11. Distribution of index of home conditions.....	51
12. Participation in social activities by occupation groups.....	65
13. Occupational structure of selected Arvin and Dinuba congregations.....	75
14. Number of business enterprises and gross volume of retail sales.....	83
15. Dollar volume of sales reported in major classes of business enterprise.....	85
16. Distribution of retail sales among various classes of enterprise.....	86
17. Divergence in the distribution of capital investment and gross volume of business in Arvin, compared to Dinuba.....	90
18. Growth of annual average daily attendance showing date of selected civic improvements.....	99
19. Growth of average daily attendance in Arvin compared to Wasco, Calif.....	102
20. Comparison of carlot shipments of fruits and vegetables (1921-42) between Arvin and selected Kern County communities.....	103

INDEX OF TABLES

Table No.	Page
1. Comparison of population and farming in the small communities in Madera, Tulare, and Kern Counties.....	12
2. Shipment of fruits and vegetables from Arvin, 1921-43.....	16
3. Quality of soil in Arvin and Dinuba.....	21
4. Comparative irrigation costs: Arvin and Dinuba.....	21
5. Comparison of number of farm operators as reported in Agricultural Adjustment Agency records and as indicated by schedules.....	23
6. Major crop classes in Arvin and Dinuba, 1940.....	26
7. Estimated gross farm income by principal sources: Arvin and Dinuba.....	26
8. Number of farms and acreages, classified by type: Arvin and Dinuba, 1940.....	27
9. Distribution of farms and productive land by size of farms: Arvin and Dinuba.....	27
10. Number of ownership units and acreage by size of holdings: Arvin and Dinuba, 1940.....	28
11. Tenure of farm operators: Arvin and Dinuba, 1940.....	32
12. Variation in tenancy by size of farms: Arvin and Dinuba, 1940.....	32
13. Residence of landowners: Arvin and Dinuba, 1940.....	33