

their clients are also exempted under the Act. Persons coming under the exemptions established by this subsection may offer lecture services to the public for a fee but may not offer other psychological services to the public for a fee without having obtained a license.

(B) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit the activities of a student intern, or resident in psychology, pursuing a course of study or research with an accredited college, university, or training center: Provided, That such activities are supervised as part of his course of study, and he is designated by such title as "psychology intern," "psychology trainee," or other title clearly indicating trainee status.

(C) Nothing in this Act shall prevent the employment by a person furnishing psychological services for remuneration, of an individual not licensed as a psychologist under the provisions of this Act to assist in the performance of psychological services, other than of counseling and psychotherapy, if such individual works under the supervision of a licensed psychologist who assumes full responsibility for his acts, and if such individual is not in any manner held out to the public as a psychologist.

SEC. 6. (A) The Commissioner shall be responsible for reviewing the applications of persons seeking licensure or certification for the practice of psychology in the District of Columbia, for the granting and renewal of such licenses and certificates, for the preparation and administration of oral and written examinations, and for other matters related to the purposes of this Act.

(B) The Commissioner may appoint a Board of Psychologist Examiners. Each member shall be a citizen of the United States, licensed under the provisions of this Act, who shall either be a resident of the District of Columbia or have worked in the District of Columbia for at least two years preceding appointment to the Board. The initial appointees shall be psychologists eligible for licensure under provisions of this Act.

(C) The Commissioner shall maintain: (1) a record of licenses granted and refused and of licenses revoked or suspended which record shall be available to the public; and (2) a complete record of all hearings conducted pursuant to section 15(B) in connection with the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license. A transcript of an entry in a record of hearing, properly certified, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

SEC. 7. (A) The Commissioner shall grant a license to practice psychology to each applicant who submits satisfactory proof that—

(1) he is of good moral character;

(2) he holds either (a) a doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited college or university and has completed two years of accredited postgraduate experience acceptable to the Commissioner, such two years not to include terms of internship, or (b) a doctoral degree in a field related to psychology from an accredited college or university, plus two years of accredited postgraduate experience: Provided, That his experience and training are considered by the Commissioner to be comparable to the requirements set forth in (2) (a) of this subsection;

(3) he has passed an examination, written or oral or both, the scope and form of which shall be determined by the Commissioner: Provided, That at any given examination session all examinations shall be uniform; and

(4) his application has been accompanied by the necessary fees.

(B) The Commissioner shall endorse a license to practice psychology as entitling the licensee additionally to practice counseling and psychotherapy, in the case of each applicant entitled to a license to practice psychology under Section 7 hereof, (1) who in addition shall pass an examination, written or oral, or both, which shall examine specifically with respect to the practice of counseling and psychotherapy, the scope and form of which shall be determined by the Commissioner: PROVIDED, That at any examination session, all such examinations shall be uniform; and (2) the applicant shall have had at least one year's internship and two years of accredited postgraduate experience in counseling and psychotherapy acceptable to the Commissioner.

SECTION. 8. Within one year from and after the effective date of this Act, a license to practice psychology, and one endorsed with respect to counseling and psychotherapy, as appropriate, shall be issued without examination to any applicant who is of good moral character, who either maintains a residence or office, or participates in psychological activities, as determined by the Commissioner, within the District of Columbia, who has submitted an application for license accompanied by the required fee, and who holds—
