

(A) a doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited college or university or other doctoral degree acceptable to the Commissioner, and has completed at least two years of postgraduate experience not including terms of internship; and

(B) a master's degree in psychology from an accredited college or university, or comparable training as determined by the Commissioner, and has engaged in psychological practice acceptable to the Commissioner for seven years after the attainment of his highest degree.

(C) The license shall state whether the licensee may practice counseling and psychotherapy if the training and experience of the applicant is in counseling and psychotherapy as determined by the Commissioner.

SEC. 9. The Commissioner may, in his discretion, grant a license with or without an endorsement to practice counseling and psychotherapy, as appropriate without examination, on payment of the required fee, to any person who at the time of application is licensed or certified under the laws of a State or territory of the United States, or of a foreign country or province whose standards, in the opinion of the Commissioner, were substantially equivalent at the date of such certification or licensure, to the requirements of this Act.

SEC. 10. A psychologist who is not licensed under the provisions of this Act, but (1) who is licensed or certified under the laws of a State or territory of the United States or of a foreign country or province whose standards, in the opinion of the Commissioner, were substantially equivalent, at the date of his certification or licensure, to the requirements of this Act or (2) who meets the requirements of subsections (A) (1) and (A) (2) of section 7, and, if he wishes to practice counseling and psychotherapy, subsection (B) (2), and resides in a State or territory of the United States, or in a foreign country or province which does not grant licences or certificates to psychologists, may be employed or invited by a person who is a resident of or maintains a place of work in the District of Columbia to offer professional services in said District for a total of not more than sixty days in any calendar year without holding a license issued under this Act. Upon arrival in the District of Columbia, such a psychologist shall report to the Commissioner with respect to the nature and duration of his professional activities in the District as well as the name of the person who has requested him to render services.

A psychologist claiming exemption under the provisions of this section who offers professional services in the District of Columbia for more than twenty days in any calendar year shall file with the Commissioner evidence of his right to such exemption. Upon proof of that right, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall enter the name of the applicant in a register kept for that purpose and shall issue to the applicant a certificate in evidence of such registration.

SEC. 11. The Commissioner may, in his discretion, waive all or part of the examination required under sections 7(A) (3) or (B) (1) of this Act when the applicant has been certified by a national examining board: PROVIDED. That the examination given by the national examining board was as effective for the testing of professional competence as those required in the District of Columbia.

SEC. 12. The District of Columbia Council is authorized to make regulations to carry out the purposes of this Act, including, after public hearing, (A) to fix, increase, or decrease fees to be charged for services performed by the District Government pursuant to the provisions of this Act in such amounts as may, in the judgment of the Council, be reasonably necessary to defray the approximate cost of administering this Act; and (B) to establish standards for the ethical practice of psychology.

SEC. 13. Every person licensed or certified to practice psychology who desires to continue the practice of psychology shall annually pay the required fee for which there will be issued a renewal of licensure or certificate. The Commissioner shall provide a written reminder of the renewal date to every person licensed or registered under this Act, which reminder shall be mailed at least one month in advance. A license or certificate not properly renewed as herein provided shall lapse. The Commissioner shall have the right to reinstate a lapsed license or certificate upon payment of the renewal fee plus a penalty fee. A psychologist who wishes to place his license upon an inactive status may do so by submitting notice thereof to the Commissioner. Such a psychologist may reactivate his license by payment of the renewal fee herein required unless his license has been inactive for a period exceeding five years, in which case he will be required to furnish the Commissioner with evidence as to his com-
