

A source of current labor history
for students of AMERICAN LABOR and SOCIAL SCIENCE
in • union
education
 • high schools
 • colleges

A collection of 33 articles from the MONTHLY LABOR REVIEW which explore and define labor-management relations, job rights and opportunities, manpower and employment planning, welfare, and economic and technological problems.

 TO: Superintendent of Documents
 Washington, D. C. 20402

There is enclosed $ _____ for _____ copies of LABOR ISSUES IN THE MID-60'S.
 Price, 50 cents. A 25-percent discount is allowed on orders for 100 or more copies.

NAME _____

STREET ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____