DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The statutory functions of the Department of Commerce are to foster, promote, and develop the foreign and domestic commerce and the manufacturing and shipping industries of the United States. Related functions include the promotion of area and regional economic development and performance of Government scientific and technical activities. These programs are conducted in appropriate relation to the overall requirements of business and industry as well as to the broad social and economic objectives of the Nation.

The Department's functions are grouped into eight program categories as shown in the following table:
