

CONFERENCE ON ECONOMIC PROGRESS

By LEON H. KEYSERLING,* PRESIDENT

CONTENTS

	Page
Introduction.....	1000
Reasons for main concentration upon CEA Report.....	1000
Need for a long-term perspective.....	1000
Plus marks for the "New Economics".....	1001
Minus marks for the "New Economics".....	1002
Significance of my earlier studies.....	1002
Outline of my presentation.....	1003
Chapter I. THE PROBLEM OF OPTIMUM ECONOMIC GROWTH:
The growth record and the growth need in detail.....	1003
The "longest upward movement on record," and the economic outlook.....	1004
Productivity trends, and their significance.....	1005
Bearing of rate of economic growth upon employment and unemployment.....	1005
Targeting economic growth through 1967, and its significance.....	1007
The erroneous views of the CEA on economic growth.....	1007
Chapter II. THE PROBLEM OF ECONOMIC EQUILIBRIUM, OR BALANCE:
Essentials of economic equilibrium or balance.....	1008
Factual anatomy of the economic disequilibrium.....	1009
The rampant profit inflation.....	1009
CEA neglect of economic equilibrium problem.....	1010
Chapter III. THE PROBLEM OF SOCIAL EQUILIBRIUM, OR PLAIN JUSTICE:
Identity of economic and social objectives in the United States.....	1011
Poverty and income maldistribution.....	1012
Social equilibrium involves the public sector.....	1013
CEA position on poverty: talk versus action.....	1014
Chapter IV. FISCAL POLICY:
Misdirection of tax cuts to date.....	1015
Narrow view of scope of the total tax burden.....	1016
The issue of "tax reform".....	1016
Neglect of core purpose of the Federal Budget.....	1017
Appropriate fiscal policies.....	1018
Increasing fiscal responsibilities of Federal Government.....	1019
A model Federal Budget, responsive to needs and capabilities.....	1019
CEA views on fiscal policy.....	1021
Chapter V. THE PROBLEM OF INFLATION:
Three main errors in approach to problem of inflation.....	1021
Evaluation of magnitudes of inflationary trends.....	1022
CEA has not probed deeply into actual consequences of rising prices.....	1023
The CEA has gravely misjudged the causes of inflation.....	1023
My thesis with respect to recent and current inflation.....	1024
Analysis of cost-push inflation.....	1025
Shortcomings in CEA treatment of inflation.....	1027
Chapter VI. PROBLEMS OF MONETARY POLICY:
General considerations.....	1028
Tight money and rising interest rates work against economic equilibrium.....	1029
Tight money and rising interest rates are in themselves inflationary.....	1030
Tight money and rising interest rates are appallingly unequitable.....	1031
CEA comments on monetary policy.....	1032

* Former Chairman, Council of Economic Advisers; consulting economist, and attorney.