

THE INFLATION DILEMMA *

By GEORGE TERBORGH, RESEARCH DIRECTOR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page No.
Chapter 1. THE TRADE-OFF BETWEEN UNEMPLOYMENT AND INFLATION..	1067
The dilemma.....	1068
I. Relation Between Unemployment and Increases in Labor
Compensation.....	1068
The picture.....	1070
II. Relation Between Unemployment and Unit Labor Costs.....	1070
Other estimates.....	1071
Unit labor costs and prices.....	1071
III. Relation Between Unemployment and Prices.....	1072
Comment.....	1074
CEA chart.....	1074
Conclusion.....	1074
Chapter 2. HOW DID WE GET THAT WAY?.....	1075
It was not ever thus.....	1075
I. The Role of Collective Bargaining.....	1076
The theory stated.....	1076
A. Opinions.....	1076
View of organized labor.....	1077
View of economists.....	1077
View of the Council of Economic Advisers.....	1078
B. Statistical evidence.....	1080
The recent period.....	1080
Comparative-rate-of-gain test.....	1081
Comparative employment growth.....	1082
Impact of the minimum wage.....	1082
Adding it up.....	1083
II. Composition of Unemployment.....	1083
Effect of dispersion.....	1084
Increase in frictional unemployment.....	1084
III. Conclusion.....	1085
Chapter 3. SALVATION BY EXHORTATION.....	1085
Controls.....	1085
I. Evolution of the Hortatory Approach.....	1086
Preguidepost formulations.....	1086
The guideposts.....	1087
II. Guideposts Examined.....	1088
Wage guideposts.....	1088
Price guideposts.....	1088
III. Difference Between Wage Restraint and Price Restraint.....	1089
Margin variance.....	1089
Hypothetical calculation.....	1090
The moral.....	1092
Chapter 4. THE GUIDEPOSTS IN APPLICATION.....	1092
I. Promotion and Enforcement.....	1092
Three aspects of enforcement.....	1093
Limited coverage.....	1094
II. Effects.....	1095
Statistical studies.....	1096
Opinion testimony.....	1096
Recent experience.....	1097
III. Abandonment.....	1098

* NOTE: Materials herein are subject to application for copyright. Permission for reprinting or excerpting from this paper should be secured from MAPI.