3. Plaintiffs' request that no development involving more than fifty (50) units be permitted pending substantive certification by the Council or as otherwise ordered by this Court following a plenary hearing is denied.

4. Plaintiffs' request that the Township forthwith comply with the Order of May 13, 1985 of this Court requiring it to pay the Court-ordered Master for her services in this matter is denied.

5. The plaintiffs' request that the Rutgers Constitutional Litigation Clinic shall be permitted to continue its representation of the Civic League before the Council on Affordable Housing is neither granted nor denied, the Court deferring on the issue to the Executive Committee on Ethical Standards.
