Civil Action

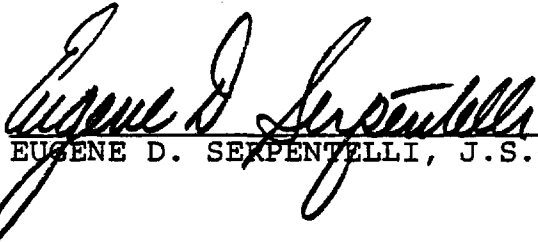

ORDER DENYING STRIKING OF
TESTIMONY AND NEW TRIAL

THIS MATTER having been opened to the Court on July 19, 1984 by Kirsten, Friedman and Cherin, P.C., attorneys for the Township of Piscataway (Phillip Lewis Paley, Esq., appearing), on application for an Order striking all testimony of witnesses relating to the development and application of a consensus methodology for the purpose of allocating a fair share of low and moderate income housing among defendant municipalities, and granting a new trial on the issues in this action, and with the participation of the following counsel: William C. Moran, Jr., Esq. of Huff, Moran & Balint, Esqs., attorneys for defendant Township of Cranbury; Daniel S. Bernstein, Esq. of Bernstein, Hoffman & Clark, Esqs., attorneys for 287 Associates; William L. Warren, Esq.

of Warren, Goldberg, Berman & Lubitz, Esqs., attorneys for plaintiff Garfield & Company; Carl S. Bisgaier, Esq. of Bisgaier & Loeffler, Esqs., attorneys for plaintiff Cranbury Land Company; Barbara J. Williams, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff Urban League; Michael J. Herbert, Esq. of Sterns, Herbert & Weinroth, Esqs., attorneys for plaintiff Lawrence Zirinsky; Ronald L. Shimanowitz, Esq. of Hutt, Berkow, Hollander and Jankowski, Esqs., attorneys for plaintiffs Great Meadows, Monroe Greens and Guaranteed Realty; and the Court having considered the moving and responding papers submitted on behalf of the parties and the arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing for the entry of this Order:

IT IS on this 3 day of August, 1984,

O R D E R E D, That the Motion of the Township of Piscataway to strike all testimony of witnesses related to the development and application of the methodology set forth in the report of the Court appointed expert, Ms. Carla Lerman, P.P., and for a new trial on the issues in this action is hereby denied.
