

Attorney's Fees

5-18-84

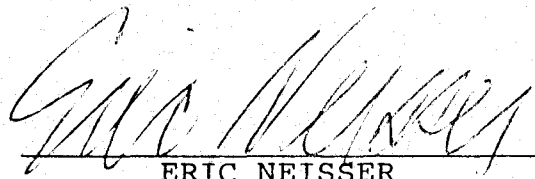

UL v. Carteret

- Affidavit of Nesser * in complete

Pgs. 2

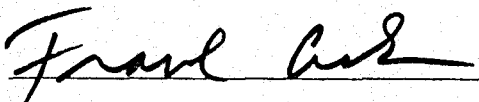

A#000018 ✓

for the reasons stated above and in the letter-brief served herewith, that the Court enter an Order forthwith, pursuant to the Rules Governing the Court of New Jersey, Rules 4:23-2(b) and 4:25-2: (a) precluding defendant North Brunswick from introducing any expert testimony on fair share issues and from introducing any testimony or other evidence concerning any subject covered by plaintiffs' interrogatories at the trial of this matter commencing on July 2, 1984; (b) precluding defendant Old Bridge from introducing any testimony or other evidence concerning any subject covered by plaintiffs' interrogatories at the trial of this matter commencing on July 2, 1984; (c) directing defendant Old Bridge to file its expert's report on fair share issues no later than Friday, May 25, 1984, stating those areas requiring further data and indicating how the data would be collected and how the expert intends to use it once collected and directing defendant Old Bridge to file its expert's completed report no later than Friday, June 1, 1984; (d) extending the time for plaintiffs to take the deposition of Old Bridge's expert to Monday, June 11, 1984; and (e) directing defendants to pay the plaintiffs' reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, for bringing this motion.

ERIC NEISSER

SWORN TO AND SUBSCRIBED
before me this 18th day of May, 1984.

An Attorney at Law, State of New Jersey