

CHAPTER 229

AN ACT establishing a study of technology for the tracking of domestic violence offenders, designated "Lisa's Law."

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. On the 120th day following the effective date of P.L.2013, c.229, the Attorney General shall report to the Governor as to the availability of appropriate technology to monitor the location of dangerous domestic violence offenders and their victims so that the victims may be warned when their attacker is in the vicinity. The Attorney General shall immediately establish a study group to identify and investigate issues related to the availability of the technology that will inform the final report.

2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire upon submission of the report to the Governor.

Approved January 17, 2013.
