b. This act does not apply to a digital asset of an employer used by an employee in the ordinary course of the employer’s business.

C.3B:14-61.4 User direction for disclosure of digital assets.

4. User Direction for Disclosure of Digital Assets.

a. A user may use an online tool to direct the custodian to disclose or not to disclose to a designated recipient some or all of the user’s digital assets, including the content of electronic communications. If the online tool allows the user to modify or delete a direction at all times, a direction regarding disclosure using an online tool overrides a contrary direction by the user in a will, trust, power of attorney, or other record.

b. If a user has not used an online tool to give direction under subsection a. of this section or if the custodian has not provided an online tool, the user may allow or prohibit in a will, trust, power of attorney, or other record, disclosure to a fiduciary of some or all of the user's digital assets, including the content of electronic communications sent or received by the user.

c. A user's direction under subsection a. or b. of this section overrides a contrary provision in a terms-of-service agreement that does not require the user to act affirmatively and distinctly from the user's assent to the terms of service.

C.3B:14-61.5 Terms-of-service agreement.

5. Terms-of-Service Agreement.

a. This act does not change or impair a right of a custodian or a user under a terms-of-service agreement to access and use digital assets of the user.

b. This act does not give a fiduciary or designated recipient any new or expanded rights other than those held by the user for whom, or for whose estate, the fiduciary or designated recipient acts or represents.

c. A fiduciary's or designated recipient's access to digital assets may be modified or eliminated by a user, by federal law, or by a terms-of-service agreement if the user has not provided direction under section 4 of this act.

C.3B:14-61.6 Procedure for disclosing digital assets.

6. Procedure for Disclosing Digital Assets.

a. When disclosing digital assets of a user under this act, the custodian shall either:

(1) grant a fiduciary or designated recipient full access to the user's account;

(2) grant a fiduciary or designated recipient partial access to the user's account sufficient to perform the tasks with which the fiduciary or designated recipient is charged; or

(3) provide a fiduciary or designated recipient a copy in a record of any digital asset that, on the date the custodian received the request for disclosure, the user could have accessed if the user were alive and had full capacity and access to the account.

b. A custodian may assess a reasonable administrative charge for the cost of disclosing digital assets under this act.

c. A custodian need not disclose under this act a digital asset deleted by a user.

d. If a user directs or a fiduciary requests a custodian to disclose under this act some, but not all, of the user's digital assets, the custodian need not disclose the assets if segregation of the assets would impose an undue burden on the custodian. If the custodian believes the direction or request imposes an undue burden, the custodian or fiduciary may seek an order from the court to disclose:

(1) a subset limited by date of the user's digital assets;

(2) all of the user's digital assets to the fiduciary or designated recipient;

(3) none of the user's digital assets; or

(4) all of the user's digital assets to the court for review in camera.

C.3B:14-61.7 Disclosure of content of electronic communications of deceased user.

- e. if requested by the custodian, any of the following:
 - (1) a number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier assigned by the custodian to identify the user's account;
 - (2) evidence linking the account to the user; or
 - (3) a finding by the court of any of the following:
 - (a) the user had a specific account with the custodian, identifiable by the information specified in paragraph (1) of this subsection;
