Ordered, That his resignation be accepted.

Resolved, That the following order do issue to colonel Nathaniel Heard, of the first battalion of Middlesex county:

THE Provincial Congress of New-Jersey, reposing great confidence in your zeal and prudence, have thought fit to entrust to your care the execution of the enclosed resolves. It is the desire of Congress that this necessary business be conducted with all the delicacy and tenderness which the nature of the business can possibly admit. For this end you will find among the papers the form of a written parole, in which there is left a blank space for you to fill up, at the choice of Mr. Franklin, with the name of Princeton, Bordentown, or his own farm at Rancocas. When he shall have signed the parole, the Congress will rely upon his honour for the faithful performance of his engagements: but should he refuse to sign the parole, you are desired to put him under strong guard, and keep him in close custody, until the further order of this Congress. Whatever expence may be necessary for this service will be cheerfully defrayed by the congress. We refer to your discretion what means to use for that purpose; and you have full power and authority to take to your aid whatever force you may require.

A letter from colonel Heard of the 17th instant, read, and is in the words following, to wit,

To SAMUEL TUCKER, Esq. President of the Provincial Congress at Burlington, per express.

Sir,

AGREEABLY to an order and resolve of the Provincial Congress lately sent me, I this morning, with major Deare, went to governor Franklin, and desired him to comply with the order of Congress, and sign the parole sent me, which he absolutely refused to do, and forbid me, at my peril, to carry the order into execution. We then left the governor's house, and ordered a company of militia, which were in readiness, to attend, attend, and have placed a guard of about sixty men at and around his house. I expect he will persist in refusing to comply, and therefore send this per express, and beg the further directions of the Congress respecting this matter as soon as possible by return of the bearer, and shall act accordingly. I am, in great haste,

Sir,

Your most humble servant,

NATHANIEL HEARD.

Amboy, June 17, 1776.

Ordered unanimously, That a copy of the following letter be signed by the president, and sent to Col. Heard.

Sir,

IT is the desire of Congress, that you immediately bring William Franklin, Esq. to this Place, under such guard as you may think sufficient.

Ordered unanimously, That a copy of the following letter be signed by the president, and sent to the Honourable John Hancock, Esq. president of the Continental Congress :

Sir,

OUR Colony has of late been alarmed with sundry attempts of disaffected persons to create disturbances. The proclamation of Mr. Franklin, our late governor, for calling together the assembly, is one of these which we have thought deserving the most serious attention. Enclosed we have sent a copy of certain resolves, which we have thought necessary to pass on the occasion; together with a copy of our instructions to Col. Heard.

We this minute received by express from Col. Heard a letter, of which the enclosed is a copy. We have ordered down to this place Mr. Franklin lia under guard; and now beg leave to submit to the confederation of the Congress, whether it would not be for the general good of the United Colonies, that Mr. Franklin should be removed to some other colony: Congress will easily conceive the reasons of this application; as Mr. Franklin, we presume, would be capable of doing less mischief in Connecticut or Pennsylvania than in New-Jersey. Whatever advice Congress may think proper to give us, we shall be glad to receive; and would further intimate, that the countenance and approbation of the Continental Congress would satisfy some persons, who might otherwise be disposed to blame us.

The enclosed printed papers will shew what steps we have taken with respect to the militia.

A petition

A petition from sundry inhabitants of the township of Morris, in the county of Morris, praying that all officers in civil government may be annually elected by the people; that the fees of all officers may be as low as possible, &c. was read, and ordered a second reading.

Ordered, That the president write to General Livingston, and inform him, that it is the desire of Congress that he would take the command of the militia destined for New-York.

The Honourable the Continental Congress having resolved "that letters be written to the "Conventions of New-Jersey and New-York, "and to the Assembly of Connecticut, recommending to them to authorize the commander in chief in the colony of New-York, to call to the assistance of that colony, when necessity shall require it, such of the militia of those colonies as may be necessary; and to afford him such other assistance as the situation of affairs may require: and that it be further recommended to the Convention of New-York, to empower the said commander in chief, to impress carriages and water craft, when necessary, for the publick service; and also to remove ships and other vessels in Hudson's and the East rivers, for the purpose of securing them from the enemy."

This Congress, sensible of the importance of securing New-York against the attempts of the enemy to cut off the communication between the eastern and southern colonies; and although they have directed the immediate raising of five battalions to join the continental army for that purpose; yet, as it is impossible to ascertain the number of the enemy, they are of opinion that, in the present uncertain state of publick affairs, the inhabitants bitants of this province ought, in cases of extraordinary danger, to give all the occasional assistance in their power, especially as the fate of America may perhaps depend upon the issue of this summer's campaign, do resolve, that in case the commander in chief of the continental forces at New-York, upon the arrival of British troops, shall stand in need of the aid of the militia of this colony, that he be authorized to call for the same, by applying to one of the brigadiers-general, or the colonels of militia. And the said militia, upon such request, are desired immediately to march to the defence of the parts invaded, or threatened with an immediate invasion. And all such of the militia as, upon the requisition of the commander in chief, shall march to the defence of any place in danger, shall be entitled to the same pay and subsistence as are allowed to the continental forces, and shall not be detained in such service more than one month from the time of their marching. This Congress, from experience of the zeal and alacrity of the inhabitants of this colony to step forward for the defence of America on all former occasions, are persuaded that this request from their representatives, arising from pure necessity, will be most cheerfully complied with, and the honour and safety of the colony thereby maintained.

Ordered, That a copy of the above resolution be transmitted to General Washington; and that the same be published in the news-papers.

Ordered unanimously, That Doctor Melanthon Freeman, be appointed surgeon, and Mr. Benjamin Stockton surgeon's mate, to the battalion directed to be raised in the counties of Middlesex and Monmouth.

A petition from John Reynolds and George Riche,

Riche, paper-makers in Germantown, Pennsylvania, setting forth, that they designed to carry on their trade in this colony, and praying that this Congress would encourage the same ; read, and ordered a second reading.

A petition from sundry inhabitants of the county of Burlington, setting forth, that great expence will necessarily attend recruiting the men directed to be raised by an ordinance of the fourteenth instant ; and praying that the men may be subsisted and paid from the time of enlistment ; read, and ordered a second reading.

William Franklin, Esq. late governor of this province, having been brought before this Congress pursuant to an order for that purpose, to be examined touching such parts of his conduct as were deemed inimical to the liberties of America, Mr. Franklin refused to answer the questions put to him, denying the authority of this body, which he alledged had usurped the king's government in this province.

As the said William Franklin, by this and his former conduct, in many instances, appears to be a virulent enemy to this country, and a person that may prove dangerous ; therefore it is

Unanimously resolved, That the said William Franklin be confined in such place and manner as the Honourable Continental Congress shall direct.

Ordered, That the president write to the Continental Congress enclosing the above resolves, and the questions that were put to Mr. Franklin.

*Resolved, That lieutenant-colonel Bowes Reed keep under safe guard the person of William Franklin, Esq. until the further order of this Congress ; and that the president sign an order for this purpose.*

CONSTITUTION of NEW-JERSEY.

Passed July 2, 1766.

WHEREAS all the constitutional authority, ever possessed by the kings of Great-Britain over these colonies, or their other dominions, was, by compact, derived from the people, and held of them for the common interest of the whole society; allegiance and protection are, in the nature of things, reciprocal ties, each equally depending upon the other, and liable to be dissolved by the other's being refused or withdrawn: And whereas George the third, king of Great-Britain, has refused protection to the good people of these colonies; and, by assenting to sundry acts of the British parliament, attempted to subject them to the absolute dominion of that body; and has also made war upon them in the most cruel and unnatural manner, for no other cause than asserting their just rights; all civil authority under him is necessarily at an end, and a dissolution of government in each colony has consequently taken place.

AND WHEREAS in the present deplorable situation of these colonies, exposed to the fury of a cruel and relentless enemy, some form of government is absolutely necessary, not only for the preservation of good order, but also the more effectually to unite the people, and enable them to exert their whole force in their own necessary defence; and as the Honourable the Continental Congress, the supreme council of the American colonies, has advised such of the colonies, as have not yet gone into the measure, to adopt for themselves respectively such government as shall best con-

duce to their own happiness and safety, and the well-being of America in general; We, the Representatives of the colony of New-Jersey, having been elected by all the counties in the freest manner, and in Congress assembled, have, after mature deliberation, agreed upon a set of charter-rights, and the form of a Constitution, in manner following, videlicet,

I. THAT the government of this province shall be vested in a governor, legislative council, and general assembly.

II. THAT the said legislative council and assembly shall be chosen, for the first time, on the second Tuesday of August next; the members whereof shall be the same in number and qualifications as is herein after mentioned; and shall be and remain vested with all the powers and authority to be held by any future legislative council and assembly of this colony until the second Tuesday in October which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven.

III. THAT on the said second Tuesday in October, yearly and every year for-ever (with the privilege of adjourning from day to day as occasion may require) the counties shall severally choose one person to be a member of the legislative council of this colony, who shall be and have been for one whole year next before the election, an inhabitant and freeholder in the county in which he is chosen, and worth at least one thousand pounds, proclamation money, of real and personal estate within the same county: That, at the same time, each county shall also choose three members of assembly; provided, that no person shall be entitled to a seat in the said assembly, unless he be and

and have been for one whole year next before the election, an inhabitant of the county he is to represent, and worth five hundred pounds, proclamation money in real and personal estate in the same county: That, on the second Tuesday next after the day of election, the council and assembly shall separately meet; and that the consent of both houses shall be necessary to every law, provided that seven shall be a quorum of the council for doing business; and that no law shall pass, unless there be a majority of all the representatives of each body personally present and agreeing thereto. Provided always, That if a majority of the representatives of this province in council and general assembly convened, shall, at any time or times hereafter, judge it equitable and proper to add to or diminish the number or proportion of the members of the assembly for any county or counties in this colony, then, and in such case, the same may, on the principles of more equal representation, be lawfully done, anything in this charter to the contrary notwithstanding; so that the whole number of representatives in assembly shall not at any time be less than thirty-nine.

IV. THAT all inhabitants of this colony of full age, who are worth fifty pounds, proclamation money, clear estate in the same, and have resided within the county in which they claim a vote for twelve months immediately preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote for representatives in council and assembly; and also for all other publick officers that shall be elected by the people of the county at large.

V. THAT the assembly, when met, shall have power to choose a speaker, and other their offi-

ers; to be judges of the qualifications and elections of their own members; sit upon their own adjournments; prepare bills to be passed into laws, and to empower their speaker to convene them, whenever any extraordinary occurrence shall render it necessary.

VI. THAT the council shall also have power to prepare bills to pass into laws, and have other like powers as the assembly, and in all respects be a free and independent branch of the legislature of this colony; save only that they shall not prepare or alter any money bill, which shall be the privilege of the assembly; that the council shall, from time to time, be convened by the governor or vice-president, but must be convened at all times when the assembly sits; for which purpose the speaker of the house of assembly shall always, immediately after an adjournment, give notice to the governor or vice-president of the time and place to which the house is adjourned.

VII. THAT the council and assembly jointly at their first meeting, after each annual election, shall, by a majority of votes, elect some fit person within the colony to be a governor for one year, who shall be constant president of the council, and have a casting vote in their proceedings; and that the council themselves shall choose a vice-president, who shall act as such in the absence of the governor.

VIII. That the governor, or, in his absence, the vice-president of the council, shall have the supreme executive power, be chancellor of the colony, and act as captain-general and commander in chief of all the militia, and other military force in this colony; and that any three or more of the council shall, at all times, be a privy council to advise the governor in all cases, where he may find it necessary to consult them; and that the governor be ordinary or surrogate general.

IX. THAT the governor and council (seven whereof shall be a quorum) be the court of appeals in the last resort in all causes of law as heretofore; and that they possess the power of granting pardons to criminals after condemnation in all cases of treason, felony, or other offences.

X. THAT captains, and all other inferior officers of the militia, shall be chosen by the companies in the respective counties; but field and general officers by the council and assembly.

XI. THAT the council and assembly shall have power to make the great seal of this colony, which shall be kept by the governor, or, in his absence, by the vice-president of the council, to be used by them as occasion may require; and it shall be called The Great Seal of the colony of New-Jersey.

XII. THAT the judges of the supreme court shall continue in office for seven years, the judges of the inferior court of common pleas in the several counties, justices of the peace, clerks of the supreme court, clerks of the inferior courts of common pleas, and quarter-sessions, the attorney-general and provincial secretary, shall continue in office for five years, and the provincial treasurer shall continue in office for one year; and that they shall be severally appointed by the council and assembly in manner aforesaid, and commissioned by the governor, or, in his absence, by the vice-president of the council. Provided always, That the said officers severally shall be capable capable of being re-appointed at the end of the terms severally before limited; and that any of the said officers shall be liable to be dismissed, when adjudged guilty of misbehaviour by the council on an impeachment of the assembly.

XIII. THAT the inhabitants of each county, qualified to vote as aforesaid, shall, at the time and place of electing their representatives, annually elect one sheriff, and one or more coroners; and that they may re-elect the same person to such offices, until he shall have served three years, but no longer; after which three years shall elapse before the same person is capable of being elected again. When the election is certified to the governor or vice-president, under the hands of six freeholders of the county for which they were elected, they shall be immediately commissioned to serve in their respective offices.

XIV. THAT the townships, at their annual town-meetings for electing other officers, shall choose constables for the districts respectively; and also three or more judicious freeholders of good character to hear and finally determine all appeals relative to unjust assessments in cases of publick taxation; which commissioners of appeal shall, for that purpose, sit at some suitable time or times to be by them appointed, and made known to the people by advertisements.

XV. THAT the laws of this colony shall begin in the following style, viz. Be it enacted by the council and general assembly of this colony, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same: That all commissions, granted by the governor or vice-president, shall run thus—The colony of New-Jersey to A B, &c. Greeting: And that all writs shall likewise run in the name of the colony: And that that all indictments shall conclude in the following manner, viz. ~~against the peace of this colony, the government, and dignity of the same.~~

XVI. THAT all criminals shall be admitted to the same privileges of witnesses and counsel, as their prosecutors are or shall be entitled to.

XVII. THAT the estates of such persons as shall destroy their own lives shall not, for that offence, be forfeited; but shall descend in the same manner as they would have done had such persons died in a natural way; nor shall any article, which may occasion accidentally the death of any one, be henceforth deemed a deodand, or in anywise forfeited on account of such misfortune.

XVIII. THAT no person shall ever within this colony be deprived of the inestimable privilege of worshipping Almighty God in a manner agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; nor under any pretence whatsoever compelled to attend any place of worship, contrary to his own faith and judgment; nor shall any person within this colony ever be obliged to pay tithes, taxes, or any other rates, for the purpose of building or repairing any church or churches, place or places of worship, or for the maintenance of any minister or ministry, contrary to what he believes to be right, or has deliberately or voluntarily engaged himself to perform.

XIX. THAT there shall be no establishment of any one religious sect in this province in preference to another; and that no protestant inhabitant of this colony shall be denied the enjoyment of any civil right merely on account of his religious principles; but that all persons professing a belief in the faith of any protestant sect, who shall demean themselves peaceably under the government ment as hereby established, shall be capable of being elected into any office of profit or trust, or being a member of either branch of the legislature, and shall fully and freely enjoy every privilege and immunity enjoyed by others their fellow subjects.

XX. THAT the legislative department of this colony may, as much as possible, be preserved from all suspicion of corruption, none of the judges of the supreme or other courts, sheriffs, or any other person or persons possessed of any post of profit under the government, other than justices of the peace, shall be entitled to a seat in assembly; but that, on his being elected and taking his seat, his office or post shall be considered as vacant.

XXI. THAT all the laws of this province, contained in the edition lately published by Mr. Allinson, shall be and remain in full force, until altered by the legislature of this colony (such only excepted as are incompatible with this charter), and shall be, according as heretofore, regarded in all respects by all civil officers, and others, the good people of this province.

XXII. THAT the common law of England, as well as so much of the statute-law, as have been heretofore practised in this colony, shall still remain in force, until they shall be altered by a future law of the legislature; such parts only excepted as are repugnant to the rights and privileges contained in this charter; and that the inestimable right of trial by jury shall remain confirmed, as a part of the law of this colony without repeal for-ever.

XXXIII. THAT every person who shall be elected as aforesaid to be a member of the legislative lative council or house of assembly, shall, previous to his taking his seat in council or assembly, take the following oath or affirmation, viz. I A B do solemnly declare, that, as a member of the legislative council (or assembly, as the case may be) of the colony of New-Jersey, I will not assent to any law, vote or proceeding, which shall appear to me injurious to the publick welfare of said colony, nor that shall annul or repeal that part of the third section in the charter of this colony, which establishes that the elections of members of the legislative council and assembly shall be annual, nor that part of the twenty-second section in said charter respecting the trial by jury, nor that shall annul, repeal or alter any part or parts of the eighteenth or nineteenth sections of the same. And any person or persons, who shall be elected as aforesaid, is hereby empowered to administer to the said members the said oath or affirmation.

Provided always, and it is the true intent and meaning of this Congress, That if a reconciliation between Great-Britain and these colonies should take place, and the latter be again taken under the protection and government of the crown of Great-Britain, this charter shall be null and void, otherwise to remain firm and inviolable.

Passed July 15, 1776.

WHEREAS by the second section of the constitution of this colony, formed by this Congress, there is to be a legislative council and general assembly elected by the good people of

of this colony, on the second Tuesday in August next; and, pursuant to the same constitution, one sheriff and one or more coroners in each county ought, at the same time, to be elected. AND WHEREAS it was thought proper not to fix or insert in the said constitution either the places or mode of election, or the place where the said council and assembly shall meet, after they are so elected, but leave them to be ascertained by a distinct ordinance of this Congress.

entitled to elect ; and also one sheriff, and one or more coroners ; adjourning from day to day, and from place to place, (except in the county of Salem) if it shall be thought necessary, pursuant to the ordinance of the late Provincial Congress. And the certificate of the judges, so as aforesaid appointed, together with six good and sufficient freeholders, shall be a sufficient testimonial of the election of any member of council or assembly ; the form of which certificate shall be as follows : *We do hereby certify, That on the day of the date hereof, A B and C were (or that A was in the certificate for a member of council) duly elected to represent the county of in the general assembly of this colony (or legislative council, as the case may require) to be held at Princeton on the 27th of this instant. And as it is highly unreasonable, that the enemies of America should be admitted to take an active part in our publick measures, no person or persons shall be admitted to vote at the said election, unless he first take the same oath or affirmation, if thereunto required, by any one of the judges or inspectors of the said election ; which oath or affirmation any one of the judges aforesaid shall be empowered to tender and administer to any or either of the said electors.

And that each person, who shall be named as a candidate by any inhabitant entitled to vote, shall be admitted to appoint one inspector and one clerk ; which clerks, when so appointed, shall be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid truly and impartially to take the votes and set down the name and place of abode of each elector, and to poll no voter, who is not attested, if required so to be by any one or more of the judges or inspectors.

Provided always, That no sheriff or coroner shall be empowered to act in his office, until he shall be commissioned by the future governor or vice-president of the colony, and shall be further qualified in such manner, as the future legislature of this colony shall direct and appoint.

And it is further resolved, That the legislative council and general assembly, when so elected, shall, for the first time, meet at Princeton.

Passed July 18, 1776.

WHEREAS it is necessary in these times of danger, that crimes should receive their due punishment ; and the safety of the people more especially requires, that all persons, who shall be found so wicked as to desire the destruction of good government, or to aid and assist the avowed enemies of the state, be punished with death ;

Therefore be it resolved and ordained by this Convention, and it is resolved and ordained by the authority of the same, That all persons abiding within this state of New-Jersey, and deriving protection from the laws thereof, do owe allegiance to the government of this state as of late established on the authority of the people, and are to be deemed as members of this state: and that all persons passing through, visiting, or making a temporary stay in this state, being entitled to the protection of the law during such passage, visitation or temporary stay, during the same time owe allegiance to this government.

And be it further resolved and ordained, That all and every person or persons, members of, or owing allegiance to this government, as before described, who, from and after the date hereof, shall levy war against this state within the same, or be adherent to the king of Great-Britain, or others the enemies of this state within the same, or to the enemies of the United States of North-America, giving to him or them aid or comfort, shall be adjudged guilty of high treason, and suffer the pains and penalties thereof, in like manner as by the ancient laws of this state, he or they should have suffered in cases of high treason.

And be it further resolved and ordained, That all and every person or persons, who, from and after the date hereof, shall be found guilty of reviling the government of this state, as by this Convention established, or of other seditious speeches or practices, shall be punished in like manner as by the former laws of this state such person or persons might or ought to have been punished for such seditious speeches and practices against the government then in being.

Provided always, That no person or persons shall suffer death, or other pains or penalties, for any the offences aforesaid, until he or they shall have been first found guilty of the same offence or offences whereof he or they shall be charged and accused in a due course of law, and by the verdict of a jury.

Provided also, That nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to divest any committee of the power they now possess of examining and committing any offenders, so that they do not proceed to the infliction of punishments for any the offences in this ordinance contained, but leave the same to be determined in due course of law in manner aforesaid.

An ordinance for detaching two thousand of the militia.

WHEREAS the Honourable Continental Congress have resolved, "That General

"Washington

Passed July 18, 1776.

"Washington be desired to call to his assistance
"two thousand of the men who have marched "into New-Jersey to form the flying camp, and "that the convention of New-Jersey be requested
"immediately to supply their places with an equal "number of the militia of that state." AND WHEREAS the situation of New-York, the vicinity of New-Jersey to the enemy, and, above all, the arrival of lord Howe, who, it is probable, will speedily make some decisive movement, render it absolutely necessary, that the most immediate and effectual steps be taken to guard against the incursions of the British troops, and to strengthen the army of the United States.

Resolved therefore unanimously, That two thousand of the militia of this state be immediately detached to supply the place of the like number taken from the flying camp in New-Jersey, and ordered to New-York.

Resolved, That said two thousand militia compose four battalions, consisting of thirty companies of sixty-four non-commissioned officers and privates, under the command of a brigadier-general.

Resolved, That said militia continue in service for the space of one calender month, computing from the time of their joining the flying camp, unless sooner discharged; that they have the same pay, rations and allowance, as the brigade under general Heard are entitled to receive from the Continental Congress, computing from the time of their marching to the place of destination; and that they conform in all instances to the regulations which are or shall be made for the government of said forces.

Resolved, That the said battalions shall be formed as follows: one battalion to consist of two companies from the county of Bergen, three companies from the county of Essex, and two companies from the county of Morris.

One battalion to consist of two companies from the county of Somerset, two companies from the county of Sussex, and four companies from the county of Hunterdon.

One battalion to consist of three companies from the county of Middlesex, three companies from the county of Monmouth (whereof captain Stillwell's company is to be one) and two companies from the county of Salem.

One battalion to consist of three companies from the county of Burlington, three companies from the county of Gloucester, and one company from the county of Cumberland.

And, in order that proper officers may be immediately appointed, Resolved, That the field-officers, with the captains and subalterns in each county, do forthwith assemble, and agree upon one captain, one lieutenant, and one ensign, for each company, to be raised in their respective counties; and that the field-officers appointed to the command of each battalion do appoint an adjutant and quarter-master for the battalion.

Resolved, That each man come equipped with a good musket with a bayonet, (if the latter can be procured) a tomahawk, a cartouch-box, blanket, canteen and knapsack.

Resolved, That the colonels of said battalions be directed to make return as soon as possible to this convention, or to the brigadier-general, to be by him laid before the convention, of the number of men which turned out in each county of this state in the battalions aforesaid.

Resolved, That the four battalions above directed to be raised, form one brigade.

Resolved,

Resolved, That the following officers be appointed to the command of the respective battalions, viz. For the battalion to be raised in Bergen, Essex and Morris, Edward Thomas, colonel, Ellis Cook, lieutenant-colonel, Maurice Goatscius, major; for the battalion to be raised in the counties of Somerset, Suffex and Hunterdon, Mark Thompson, colonel, Abraham Bonnel, lieutenant-colonel, and Enos Kelsey, major; for the battalion to be raised in the counties of Middlesex, Monmouth and Salem, George Taylor, colonel, Whitton Cripps, lieutenant-colonel, and John Duychinck, major; for the battalion to be raised in the counties of Burlington, Gloucester and Cumberland, Charles Read, colonel, Josiah Hillman, lieutenant-colonel, and William Ellis, major.

Resolved, That any of the said two thousand militia, while in service, be at liberty to enlist in the brigade under the command of General Heard, and, on such enlistment, shall be entitled to the bounty of Three Pounds, agreeable to the late ordinance of the Congress.

And whereas camp-kettles are extremely scarce, and indeed impossible to be procured, Therefore resolved, That it be recommended to the said militia to bring with them a sufficient number of kettles; and for this purpose it is further recommended, that every company be divided into lots, six men in a lot, and that each lot furnish itself with a kettle. And if said kettles, or any of them, should happen to be taken by the enemy, or endamaged or destroyed in the service, this state will make the owners full compensation for such injury or loss.

The zeal, alacrity, and spirit, which the inhabitants of New-Jersey have manifested during the present most important contest for freedom, is a happy happy presage, as well as the strongest assurance, that this requisition of their representatives will be carried into instant execution; and the rather so, as the brigade, now directed to be raised, is particularly destined to guard this state. We flatter ourselves that it is almost useless to recommend the utmost dispatch, as the enemy is at hand, and the danger pressing and great. The vicinity of a mortal foe, whose avowed design is to reduce us to the most abject state of vassalage, is surely a call sufficient for freemen. Our brethren of Pennsylvania pour out in thousands: may New-Jersey keep the illustrious example in view, and evince to the world, that the militia of this state are equally zealous in the glorious cause of American freedom! Remember, the hour is approaching, which will, in all human probability, decide the fate of America—which will either ensure your title to the rank of freemen, or debase you to the lowest class of slaves. Life, liberty and property, all await the issue of the present struggle. Arise then and exert yourselves!

On ordinance for keeping open the communication between New-Jersey and New-York by way of the ferries over Passaic and Hackensack rivers.

Passed August 9, 1776.

THE Convention having received information that the ferries over Passaic and Hackensack rivers, between Newark and New-York, are neither supplied by the proprietors thereof or their tenants, with such a number of scows and proper boats as are requisite in our present alarming situation, situation, nor duly attended. AND WHEREAS it is of great importance that the passing and repassing between this state and New-York, while the enemy is at our door, should be put on the most convenient footing; and the said proprietors and tenants, notwithstanding repeated applications, having neglected to make the necessary provision for the aforesaid purposes;

It is therefore resolved, ordained and directed, That the management and direction of said ferries be taken out of the hands of the said proprietors, and that messieurs William Camp and Joseph Hedden, junior, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to take into their hands the possession, sole management and direction of said ferries, and hold the same for the purposes aforesaid, until the first day of December next, unless sooner discharged from this service by the legislature of this state. And they, or either of them, are hereby empowered and required to provide at least four scows for the ferries over each of said rivers, and to employ a sufficient number of hands to ply and attend the same; and also to provide ropes to be stretched across the said rivers, and all such articles as they shall judge expedient for the service aforesaid.

And it is further resolved and directed, That no troops in service of the United States, or of any of them, nor their baggage, ammunition or their other waggons, carriages or horses shall pay more than one third part of the ferriage paid by such as are not in said service; and, to prevent a misconstruction of this resolve, It is hereby declared, That commissaries or other persons supplying the army by contract with provisions, stores, &c. are not intended to be either included in, or to receive any private benefit from the said resolve.

And

And it is further resolved and directed, That the said commissioners keep an exact account as well of the expences and disbursements, as of the monies they shall receive for ferriages. And the said commissioners, or either of them, are hereby authorised to draw orders on either of the treasurers of this state for such sums of money as shall be necessary for the disbursements aforesaid, and his or their receipts thereof shall be sufficient vouchers to indemnify the said treasurers, their heirs, executors and administrators for the payment of said orders; and, at the expiration of the said term, the said accounts of disbursements and monies received for ferriage by the commissioners, shall be submitted to the examination of the said proprietors, who shall and may then choose, either to accept of the profits arising from the said ferries while in the hands of said commissioners, after paying thereout such sum for said commissioners attendance on the business aforesaid, as by the representatives of this state shall be adjudged, or be paid a reasonable rent for the ferries during the time aforesaid.

An ordinance for detaching one half of the militia,

Passed August 11, 1776.

THE Convention viewing with serious concern the present alarming situation of this and their sister states, that on a prudent use of the present moment depend their lives, their liberty and happiness, think it their indispensible duty to put the militia on such a footing, that their whole force may be most advantageously exerted; and to call out the one half into immediate service, to be relieved by the other monthly.

Be it therefore resolved, ordained and directed; That all able-bodied men, without exception, in this state, between the ages of sixteen and fifty, be immediately enrolled by the captains of the militia, in whose districts they live, into their several companies, and be called, and deemed to be, in construction of this Ordinance, the militia of this State, and to be in that regiment to which the company they are enrolled in belongs; and that the said militia be formed into two divisions in manner following, to wit, orders shall be immediately issued by the brigadiers-general to the several colonels or commanding officers of every regiment and battalion within this state to call together without delay all that are directed as aforesaid to be enrolled in their several companies; and in those regiments or battalions where one half will not turn out volunteers to serve in the first division, that the divisions be determined by lot.

That the first division be immediately equipped with arms and every necessary accoutrement that can be obtained, and four days provision, and march with all dispatch to join the flying camp in this state. And, to the end that the several divisions may be properly formed and officered, It is hereby directed, That the battalions of the first division shall be formed as follows, to wit, one battalion from the regiments or battalions whereof Philip Van Cortland and Edward Thomas, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the regiment whereof Theunis Dey, Esquire, is colonel; another battalion from the battalions, whereof Jacob Ford and Jacob Drake, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the two regiments regiments and one battalion, whereof Mark Thompson, Ephraim Martin and John Cleave Symmes, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the two battalions whereof Stephen Hunt and Abraham Quick, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the battalions whereof George Taylor, David Bresley and Daniel Hendrickson, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the battalions whereof Jonathan Deare, Esquire, is lieutenant-colonel, and John Neilson and John Duykinck, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the battalions whereof Isaac Smith and David Chambers, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the battalions whereof Joseph Beavers and John Mehelm, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the battalions whereof Joseph Borden and Charles Read, Esquires, are colonels; another battalion from the battalions whereof Joseph Ellis and Richard Somers, Esqrs. are colonels, and Samuel Tonkin, Esquire, is lieutenant-colonel; another battalion from the battalions whereof Samuel Dick and John Holme, Esquires, are colonels; and another battalion from the battalions whereof Silas Newcomb and David Potter, Esquires, are colonels.

That the field and other officers of every two regiments or battalions, from whence by division a battalion is to be formed as aforesaid, meet together as soon as possible; and the officers to command each division shall be determined as follows; one of the regiments or battalions shall furnish a colonel, the other a lieutenant-colonel, and so alternately the majors and other officers; and if it cannot readily be agreed by the said officers, which regiment or battalion shall furnish the colonel, or other field-officer for the first division, the same shall be determined by lot; and wheresoever wheresoever there are a greater number of companies in one than in the other of the said regiments or battalions from whence one is to be formed as aforesaid, if the captains and subalterns in that regiment or battalion containing the greatest number of companies do not agree among themselves who shall serve in the first division, the same shall be determined by lot.

That in the county where there is but one regiment, either the colonel and one of the majors, or the lieutenant-colonel and the other major go out with the first division; and if not agreed on among themselves which of them shall go in the first division, the same shall be determined by lot; and wherever a battalion is to be formed out of three regiments or battalions, the field-officers shall go out in rotation.

That the battalions for the second division shall be formed in like manner as those of the first division, to wit, each of the remaining half parts of such regiments or battalions out of which a battalion is above directed to be formed for the first division, shall form a battalion for the second division.

That the first division shall continue in service for and during the term of one month, to be computed from the time of joining the flying camp; and then, unless sooner discharged, to be relieved by the second division, and so alternately every month, until orders to the contrary shall be issued by the legislature, the commander in chief, or one of the brigadiers-general of this state.

That to the end that every man of the first division may be completely equipped as far as possible, the several colonels or commanding officers of each regiment or battalion of the militia are hereby directed to take from the militia of the second division of their respective regiments or battalions a sufficient number of their best arms, and equip those of the first division, giving receipts and taking just appraisements; and, when relieved by the second division, those of the first shall re-deliver the same to them; and also such numbers of their own arms as shall be needed to be taken, and appraised in manner aforesaid; and the same arms so at any time lent or taken, if lost or damaged in the service, shall be made good by this state.

That every private shall and may have the liberty of timely providing an able bodied man to serve in his stead, to be approved by the captain of the company in which he is to serve.

That every officer refusing to serve in his turn shall be cashiered and reduced into the ranks, and shall be fined in manner following; a colonel twenty pounds; a lieutenant-colonel fifteen pounds; a major twelve pounds; a captain eight pounds; a lieutenant, ensign or adjutant, six pounds; a non-commissioned officer three pounds; and every private refusing to serve in his turn as aforesaid, shall be fined three pounds.

That the pay of the officers and privates, to be computed from the time of their marching to join the flying camp, shall be, in all respects, the same as those in the continental service.

And whereas the principles of equity and humanity require, that a proper compensation and provision be made for the families of all such as may be killed or wounded in the service; the convention pledge the faith of this state, that an adequate provision for the purpose aforesaid shall be made in such manner, as that an equitable share of the burden shall fall upon those who do not go out with one or other of said divisions on their tour of service ; it being clearly the opinion of the convention, that the fines above-mentioned to be paid by those who do not go out, being but a small share of property, are not equivalent, nor can with any degree of reason be put in competition with the risk of lives and limbs of those who go into the service ; and also upon persons of property above the age of fifty, who are neither required to do duty nor pay any fine.

In this interesting situation—viewing on the one hand—an active, inveterate and implacable enemy, increasing fast in strength, daily receiving large reinforcements, and industriously preparing to strike some decisive blow : on the other—a considerable part of the inhabitants supinely slumbering on the brink of ruin—and moved with affecting apprehensions, the convention think it incumbent upon them to warn their constituents of the impending danger.—On you, our friends and brethren, it depends, this day, to determine—Whether you, your wives, your children, and millions of your descendants yet unborn, shall wear the galling, the ignominious yoke of slavery ; or nobly inherit the generous, the inestimable blessings of freedom.—The alternative is before you—can you hesitate in your choice ? can you doubt which to prefer ? Say !—will you be slaves ? Will you toil and labour and glean together a little property, merely that it may be at the disposal of a relentless and rapacious conqueror ?—Will you, of choice, become hewers of wood and drawers of water ? Impossible ! You cannot be so amazingly degenerate as to lick the hand that is raised to shed your blood !—Nature and nature's God have made you free !—Liberty is the birthright of Americans ! the gift is of heaven ! and the instant it is forced forced from you, you take leave of every thing valuable on earth !—Your happiness or misery, virtuous independence or indignant servitude, hang trembling in the balance !—Happily we know, we can anticipate your virtuous choice—With confident satisfaction we are assured, that not a moment will delay your important decision—that you cannot feel hesitation, whether you will tamely and degenerately bend your necks to the irretrievable wretchedness of slavery—or by your instant and animated exertions enjoy the fair inheritance of heaven-born freedom, and transmit it unimpaired to your posterity.
